

History comes alive to celebrate the
250TH ANNIVERSARY
OF HISTORIC
EPPINGTON PLANTATION.

Saturday, Oct. 6
10 a.m.-4 p.m.
14201 Eppes Falls Road
Rain Date: Sunday, Oct. 7

Visit with Major General Marquis de Lafayette, as he takes you back through history to life in the 18th century. Tour the historic house and cemetery, take a carriage ride, listen to period musical performances, watch plein air artists paint on site, and enjoy food and craft beer vendors. Children can play period games and see a colonial encampment complete with artillery demonstrations.

Free admission.
For more information,
call 751-4946 or
visit eppington.org.

Take a peak inside the history of Eppington with several programs at county libraries.

Saturday, Sept. 8

1-2 p.m.

Central Library

Learn about the Eppington and the Revolutionary war through eyes of the historical reenactor portraying the Marquis de Lafayette.

Wednesday, Sept. 19

3-4:30 p.m.

North Courthouse Road Library

Martha W. McCartney, research historian and author of “Eppington on the Appomattox” discusses Francis Eppes and his ties to Thomas Jefferson. Book signing to follow presentation.

Thursday, Sept. 20

6-7 p.m.

Ettrick-Matoaca Library

William Graham, former curator of architecture for the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation talks about the historic architecture of Eppington.

Saturday, Sept. 22

10:30-11:30 a.m.

Clover Hill Library

The Marquis de Lafayette talks to children about his relationship with Eppes and the beginning of our country.

To sign up, go to library.chesterfield.gov and click on “Events.”